Special Guest at The Plantation Course

Left to Right: John Delk, Joan Delk, David Delk, and Allan Delk

LPGA professional Joan Delk and her family enjoyed several rounds here at The Plantation Course. She graduated from Furman University where she played on the golf team and went on to play on the ladies professional tour. She is now a teaching professional at Crystal Falls Lake and Golf Club in Dawsonville, Ga. Joan has offered to come back for a ladies clinic at The Plantation Course. Ladies look for more information in the future. She and her family loved our course and look forward to returning.

Golf's Upcoming Generation

Meet RJ Howle of Aiken, SC who visited Edisto recently and played golf with his family. RJ is 9 years old and the son of George and Pamela Howle. RJ will be concentrating on his 4th grade studies soon, but while in Edisto he was concentrating on improving his impressive power swing and follow through. He didn't say how many balls he lost, we think not many considering his impressive score and the fact that he beat his dad by 1 shot.

Top Ten Signs You're Golfing Too Much

1. When you pick up something off the floor, you have to lean on your putter
2. The only number on your speed dial is 1-800-TEETIME
3. You have your priorities in order: food, shelter, greens fees, job
4. You dream you go to prison but still get conjugal visits with your driver
5. You tell the lost motorist that the gas station is only a par 4 away on the left
6. You'd like to take off your glove but hey, why bother
7. Whenever you see a hole in the ground, you squat, squint and read the line
8. You're vaguely aware of living with a woman, allegedly your wife
9. You ask the shopper ahead in the check out line if you can play through
10. Before you pick up the salt shaker, you mark its position with a dime
