

The Plantation Course at Edisto

August
2011

Members Trip

We will offer our first “ROAD GOLF TRIP” of the year on August 18th and we will visit the Ralston Course at Daniel Island.

The trip is open to the first 12 Members who sign up, and the cost will be $ 85 which includes Green Fee, Cart and Transportation

Sign-up and join us for a ‘FUN DAY’!!!!

New Members

TPC would like to send a warm welcome to our newest members John and Meg Owings from Knoxville, Tn. We hope you will visit us soon and often and we look forward to getting to know you both. Thanks for your support, we are very happy to have you as a TPC member.

Notice to Male Members with Handicaps

As of July 13, 2011, the SCGA has re-rated our course . Handicaps from the Blue and White Tees reflect a more difficult course than previously rated, so your handicap for those tees may have increased.

A Shot from the Past

During a recent review of our course archives, we discovered some golf news which is long overdue for proper recognition.

During the first week of August 1996, Mr. Roy Lloyd of Lorton, Virginia, scored a hole-in-one on Hole # 12 of the former Edisto Beach Golf Club. He was using an 8 iron on the 144 yard shot and was accompanied by his late father, Mr. Julius Lloyd.

Since Mr.. Lloyd and his family are visiting Edisto the first week of August this year, we thought a reminder of his first and only ‘Ace’ could possibly bring good golf fortunes.

The Perfect Playing Partner

You find many different personalities on the golf course. Here are a few examples you may come across:

The Bragger: The greatest golfer before play starts...then the excuses start (haven't played recently, sore neck, back...)

Jekyll and Hyde: Great person off the course, but completely inconsiderate on the course.

The Ignoramus: Usually shows no regard for the rules of etiquette, he will walk on your putting line, talk at inappropriate times or make unnecessary noises

The Complainer: This title speaks for itself and describes a player that is just no fun to be around

The Sulker: One who hits a bad shot and then suddenly becomes withdrawn and there is no further pleasant conversation - sometimes this person can become... The Curser using bad language at every chance, representing himself poorly and making him no fun to be around

So, What are the traits of “The Perfect Playing Partner”:

Someone who is polite, quiet when necessary, respectful, competitive, and fun to be around.

Golf Chuckles

A Golfer and his Caddy

Golfer: "I've never played this badly before"

Caddy: "I didn't realize that you had played before, sir"

Golfer: "Please stop checking your watch, it is annoying."

Caddy: "This isn't a watch, sir. It is a compass."

Golfer: "I've played so poorly, I think I'm going to go drown myself in that lake."

Caddy: "I don't think you could keep your head down that long."
