2nd Annual Oyster Roast

The Second Annual Plantation Course Oyster Roast was also the kickoff for the Member - Member Tournament. The hotdogs and oysters were excellent. We had a great turnout this year and we hope everyone who came had a great time. Hopefully, you met some fellow club members you did not already know and got some matches set up for this holiday season. We look forward to more get-togethers and tournaments in the near future.

Charleston Chemist

Come by and check out our new product line and "Surround Yourself in a Southern State of Mind." Charleston Chemist bath and body products are handmade in Charleston and come in several southern scents with very southern names like Grits & Giggles and Sugar Britches. All of the products would make great Christmas gifts and stocking stuffers especially for friends and family who love the south, but don't live here.

Golf Chuckles

Echo

A golfer hit his ball into a ravine.

His buddies heard 'whack, whack, whack' on and on, until finally he got the ball out.

His buddy asked, "How many strokes did it take you to get out of there?" He said, "Three", but his buddy said, "I heard seven."

His reply, "Four of them were echoes."
