Hole-in-One

Congratulations to Plantation Course member, Carol Payne of Edisto who had an ACE on #6 September 30th. The shot was made with her 7 iron from 90 yards and witnessed by her husband, Steve Payne. Not only was this Carol's first ever hole-in-one, but the shot was made on her Birthday. What a great Birthday present!
Congratulations again Carol !

Golf Chuckles

The gorilla's revenge

The pro at the club was rude. When he beat you on the course he not only took your money he then told you everything you did wrong and suggested that you would never be able to hit the ball out of your own shadow. One of the members had enough, so he bought a gorilla and trained it to play golf. He then set up a game with the pro--$1000 a side.

The day the match arrived and all parties were ready. The first hole was a par five of 575 yards. The pro teed off splitting the fairway some 270 yards out.

The gorilla lumbered up to the tee, placed the ball on the ground and made a mighty swing. The ball rocketed off the clubface 100, 200, 300, 400, 500, 575 yards and stopped 5 inches from the cup.

The pro couldn't believe it. If this was an indication of the way things were going to go then he would never live it down. He immediately settled the bet, remembering that he had urgent business across town. As they walked from the tee the pro asked, "How does he putt?" The member answered, "The same as he drives, 575 yards".
